

Are we there yet? A trip to the beach.

Instructions

Fill in the gaps with your own words to make up a story about a trip to the beach. Be as creative as you like so you can show your teacher when you get home.

One day, _____ were going to the beach. They got a big beach bag and filled it full of _____. For lunch, the picnic basket was filled with _____.

_____ . When they got there, _____ was the first to say 'I can see the sea!' and everyone laughed with excitement. The weather was _____ . Everyone ran down to the beach and found the perfect spot to lay out the beach towels and then _____ put their costumes on and dipped their toes in the water – it was _____ ! Next it was time to explore the rockpools.

After a careful climb over slippery stones, crab lines were cast and buckets at the ready. The creatures caught were _____ . By lunchtime everyone was starving so everyone munched their way through _____ .

It was _____ . After lunch it was a treat to go to the ice cream stand – the best flavours were _____ . In the afternoon, the sea was _____ so it was time for _____ lessons. It was _____ . Eventually the tide came in and got too close to the towels so everything got packed back into the car.

The best bit about a day at the beach was _____

_____ .

classic cottages
Est. 1977